

Charles F. Stewart, 79, of New Port Richey, Florida, formerly of McDonald, died Wednesday, August 22, 1984.

Born November 8, 1904, in McDonald, he was a son of Charles and Anna Steinheiser Stewart.

Mr. Stewart was a retired coal miner and worked for Vickers, Inc., in Detroit, Michigan, for 18 years.

On May 23, 1936, he married Louise Vidal, who survives.

Also surviving are one son, Melvin C. Stewart of New Port Richey, Florida; one daughter, Lenora Jan Oliverio of Pocatello, Idaho; three brothers, George of Homestead, Clyde of McDonald, R. D. 4, and Emile of McDonald; one sister; eight grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

Three brothers, William, James and John, are deceased.

Services were held Saturday at 11:00 a.m. in the Frank J. Nation Funeral Home, Inc., McDonald. Interment was in Robinson Run Cemetery.