
Betty L. DOCKTER

DOCKTER, Betty Lou, 84, of Granite Bay, previously of Sacramento, died early Sunday, January 27 as she slept. She was born March 23, 1928 in Kerman, California to the late Arthur Foss and Roxie Ladd Rickenbacker. Betty was a homemaker and retired department store clerk. She was preceded in death by her husband Gerhard C. Dockter, brothers Guy, Dale, Rex, Art, Bruce, sister Blanche Bugge and infant sister Evelyn Foss, half-sister Eva and half-brother Charles Foss. She is survived by two daughters, Janet Newell and husband Ronald of Granite Bay, Nancy Payne and husband Kenneth of Huntington, Arkansas, grandchildren Mark (Mona) Newell, David Newell, Karen (Brian) Dougal, Chrissy (Doug) Clark, Nathan (Denise) Payne, Darrel Payne, 10 great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews. Special thanks to her caregiver Damallie Kakumba. Arrangements made by Lambert Funeral Home in Roseville.

Graveside services will be held at 1:00pm, Saturday February 2, at Sacramento Memorial Lawn.

Published in Sacramento Bee on January 31, 2013
